Red PIPING

4. Pipe an outline around the main apple shape.

Dark Gray PIPING

5. Outline a shape for the stem that's narrow at the bottom and bulbous at the top.

Pale Blue PIPING

6. Pipe an outline for a curvy leaf that starts at the stem & ends at the top right point.

Pale Blue PIPING

7. Pipe a similar, but slightly smaller, leaf emerging from the left side of the stem.

Assorted PIPING

8. Using coordinating colors for each section, pipe the crater-preventing squiggles shown above.

Dark Gray FLOOD

9. Fill in the stem, using your scribe to pull icing to the edges.

Apple (cont.)

White FLOOD

10. Fill in the middle of the apple slice.

Tan PIPING

11. With the white icing still wet, pipe two half-heart shapes along the top edge of the slice, one inside the other.

Pale Blue FLOOD

12. Fill in each leaf, using your scribe to pull icing into each sharp point.

13. Allow your icing to dry or, at a minimum, crust over.

Red FLOOD

14. Fill in the main apple shape, using your scribe to clean up the edge around the slice.

15. Allow your icing to dry or, at a minimum, crust over.

Red PIPING

16. Outline the bottom edge of the slice to give it a little more definition.

Dark Gray PIPING

17. Pressure-pipe a tear drop shape to create a seed in your slice.

Green PIPING

18. Starting near the stem, pipe a gently curved line about 3/4 of the way up each leaf.

Apple (cont.)

Pale Blue PIPING

19. Pipe a few small decorative dashes in the top left corner of the apple.

ALL DONE!
