

Cauldron

Food Marker

1. Use a food marker along with either your projector or paper templates to mark guides on your cookie.
(More details in the video)

White PIPING

2. Outline the smoke shape, piping right to the edges of the cookie where applicable.

Gray PIPING

3. Pipe an oval at the top of the cauldron.

Gray PIPING

4. Outline the base of the cauldron.

Gray PIPING

5. Outline and immediately fill in each foot with piping icing. Use your scribe to wiggle/settle it.

Pale Pink FLOOD

6. Fill in the middle of the smoke shape, leaving gaps at the top and bottom.

Mauve FLOOD

7. Fill in the bottom section of the smoke, piping a few lines that extend into the middle.

White FLOOD

8. Fill in the top of the smoke, piping a few lines that extend down into the middle.

Scribe Tool

9. Use your scribe tool to swirl around the intersecting colors of icing in a circular motion.

Cauldron (cont.)

White FLOOD

10. Pipe two crescent-shaped highlights in the still wet icing, using your scribe to pull the ends into sharp points.

Gray FLOOD

11. Fill in the base of the cauldron.

12. Allow your icing to dry or, at a minimum, crust over.

Gray FLOOD

13. Fill in the top oval of the cauldron.

14. Allow your icing to dry or, at a minimum, crust over.

Gray PIPING

15. Pipe a line along the bottom half of the top oval.

Gray PIPING

16. Pipe a curved line (a half-oval) just a few millimeters inside the edge of the top oval.

Mauve PIPING

17. Pipe a curved line to create the upper border of the "witch's brew". Start and end the line a bit inside of the gray curve you just piped.

Mauve PIPING

18. To create bubbles, pipe a series of half circles. The top edge of some of these bubbles can overlap the upper mauve border.

Cauldron (cont.)

Mauve PIPING & Pale Pink FLOOD

19. Fill each bubble with mauve piping icing. Hold your tip to the surface and pressure-pipe to make the bubbles very full. Next pipe a pale pink dot in each.

20. Allow your bubbles to dry or crust over.

Mauve FLOOD

21. Apply a very thin layer of flood icing in the space around the bubbles. Use your scribe to spread the icing into tight areas.

Gray PIPING

22. Pipe small circular (or tear drop shaped) handles near the top edges of the cauldron's base.

White PIPING

23. Pipe starbursts and dots (as shown) in the space between the smoke and cauldron.

Plum PIPING

24. Pipe two starburst and a dot (as shown) on top of the smoke.

Gold PIPING

25. Pipe a small line over the top of each handle.

NOTE: Stop here or continue on to paint some extra details.

Slate Gel, Water, & Round Brush

26. Water down your slate gel and apply some shading to the edges (and under the rim) of the cauldron using a small round brush. Blend the color inward with a slightly damp brush.

Slate Gel, Water, & Fine Tip Brush

27. Using the gray "paint" from your last step, paint a few sets of dash marks on the base of the cauldron.

Eggplant, Mauve, Maroon Gel,
Water, Fine-Tip Brush & Round Brush

28. Mix the three gel colors together with water and paint fine lines along the right edge of each crescent highlight. Water the paint down further and paint a subtle shadow along the bottom edge of the "brew" with your round brush.

ALL DONE!
